

Cease-Fire Negotiators Meet At Kaesong

Hill Leads Fight For Tar Heels

Hoey Defeated By Alabamian

By BRUCE JOLLY
Greensboro Daily News Washington Bureau
WASHINGTON, July 9.—The Senate today "pointed a gun" at Carolina Power and Light Company to insure an adequate power transmission contract for rural electric co-operatives in North Carolina.

Federal Tax Bill Termed Inflationary

WASHINGTON, July 9.—(AP)—A former treasury official said today Congress is about to get its signals crossed: He argued that a $7,200,000,000 tax hike passed by the House will promote inflation instead of curb it, as intended.

Today's Chuckle

Sportsmen who complain about the high prices their wives pay for meat and fish may not feel so bad if they reflect on the following: "U. S. hunters and fishermen spent just under $9.00 a pound for meat and fish they bagged last year," according to a report by Albert M. Day, head of the U. S. Fish and Wildlife Service.

OPERATIONS CONTINUED

Two Struck Plants Dynamited Near Madison

By J. W. HALL
Daily News Staff Writer
PINE HALL, July 8.—The Sunday-night dynamiting of two strike plants of a brick and pipe company, added apprehension to residents of a 15-mile area near Madison today and law enforcement officers of two counties sought the man or men who set off the blasts.

Mobilizer Fears Truce Bid Trick

WASHINGTON, July 9.—(AP)—Charles E. Wilson, appointing agent for strong price controls and unflagging rearmament, suggested tonight that the Communist truce bid was a "maneuver" to induce this country to drop its guard.

State Of War End Sought For Reich

Truman Offers Resolution

WASHINGTON, July 9.—(AP)—President Truman asked Congress today to formally end the state of war he declared against Germany six years ago.

Iranian Calls Truman Bid 'Little Late'

TEHRAN, Iran, July 9.—(AP)—President Truman again appealed to Premier Mohammed Mossadegh today for a settlement of the oil crisis, fast approaching a calamitous shutdown of British operations, but the Iranian premier said the appeal was a "little late."

Saving Lives Is Basic U. S. Aim For Parley

WASHINGTON, July 9.—(AP)—The following interpretation of the Korean armistice conference was written by Frank H. King, A. P. general editor, Monday from a three-month assignment in Korea and Japan. He has been a front line observer of the fighting and has talked with top Allied military and diplomatic leaders.

Man Arrested

A Negro man found in woods near Plant No. 3 almost immediately after the explosion there was questioned and arrested late yesterday afternoon.

Judge Burgwyn Denies Drunk Driving Charge

An Associated Press dispatch said last night the trial of Superior Court Judge W. H. S. Burgwyn of Woodland for drunken driving and hit and run driving on July 1 was continued yesterday until sometime in August before a Franklin, Va. judge.

Man Arrested

A Negro man found in woods near Plant No. 3 almost immediately after the explosion there was questioned and arrested late yesterday afternoon.

Man Arrested

A Negro man found in woods near Plant No. 3 almost immediately after the explosion there was questioned and arrested late yesterday afternoon.

Allies Take Firm Stand

TOKYO, Tuesday, July 10.—(UP)—Allied and Communist negotiators met today in Kaesong for showdown talks on war or peace in Korea and the United Nations served notice it would not discuss political or economic matters at the moment.

U. N. TRUCE NEGOTIATORS

Vice Adm. C. Turner Joy, left, heads up the team of top U. N. officers who are meeting at Kaesong today in an effort to arrange a cease-fire in the Korean war. Among his assistants is Maj. Gen. L. C. Craigie of the U. S. Air Force, right.

Vice Adm. C. Turner Joy, left, heads up the team of top U. N. officers who are meeting at Kaesong today in an effort to arrange a cease-fire in the Korean war. Among his assistants is Maj. Gen. L. C. Craigie of the U. S. Air Force, right.

Iranian Calls Truman Bid 'Little Late'

TEHRAN, Iran, July 9.—(AP)—President Truman again appealed to Premier Mohammed Mossadegh today for a settlement of the oil crisis, fast approaching a calamitous shutdown of British operations, but the Iranian premier said the appeal was a "little late."

Iranian Calls Truman Bid 'Little Late'

TEHRAN, Iran, July 9.—(AP)—President Truman again appealed to Premier Mohammed Mossadegh today for a settlement of the oil crisis, fast approaching a calamitous shutdown of British operations, but the Iranian premier said the appeal was a "little late."

Iranian Calls Truman Bid 'Little Late'

TEHRAN, Iran, July 9.—(AP)—President Truman again appealed to Premier Mohammed Mossadegh today for a settlement of the oil crisis, fast approaching a calamitous shutdown of British operations, but the Iranian premier said the appeal was a "little late."

Iranian Calls Truman Bid 'Little Late'

TEHRAN, Iran, July 9.—(AP)—President Truman again appealed to Premier Mohammed Mossadegh today for a settlement of the oil crisis, fast approaching a calamitous shutdown of British operations, but the Iranian premier said the appeal was a "little late."

Iranian Calls Truman Bid 'Little Late'

TEHRAN, Iran, July 9.—(AP)—President Truman again appealed to Premier Mohammed Mossadegh today for a settlement of the oil crisis, fast approaching a calamitous shutdown of British operations, but the Iranian premier said the appeal was a "little late."

Iranian Calls Truman Bid 'Little Late'

TEHRAN, Iran, July 9.—(AP)—President Truman again appealed to Premier Mohammed Mossadegh today for a settlement of the oil crisis, fast approaching a calamitous shutdown of British operations, but the Iranian premier said the appeal was a "little late."

Iranian Calls Truman Bid 'Little Late'

TEHRAN, Iran, July 9.—(AP)—President Truman again appealed to Premier Mohammed Mossadegh today for a settlement of the oil crisis, fast approaching a calamitous shutdown of British operations, but the Iranian premier said the appeal was a "little late."

Allies Take Firm Stand

TOKYO, Tuesday, July 10.—(UP)—Allied and Communist negotiators met today in Kaesong for showdown talks on war or peace in Korea and the United Nations served notice it would not discuss political or economic matters at the moment.

U. N. TRUCE NEGOTIATORS

Vice Adm. C. Turner Joy, left, heads up the team of top U. N. officers who are meeting at Kaesong today in an effort to arrange a cease-fire in the Korean war. Among his assistants is Maj. Gen. L. C. Craigie of the U. S. Air Force, right.

Vice Adm. C. Turner Joy, left, heads up the team of top U. N. officers who are meeting at Kaesong today in an effort to arrange a cease-fire in the Korean war. Among his assistants is Maj. Gen. L. C. Craigie of the U. S. Air Force, right.

Iranian Calls Truman Bid 'Little Late'

TEHRAN, Iran, July 9.—(AP)—President Truman again appealed to Premier Mohammed Mossadegh today for a settlement of the oil crisis, fast approaching a calamitous shutdown of British operations, but the Iranian premier said the appeal was a "little late."

Iranian Calls Truman Bid 'Little Late'

TEHRAN, Iran, July 9.—(AP)—President Truman again appealed to Premier Mohammed Mossadegh today for a settlement of the oil crisis, fast approaching a calamitous shutdown of British operations, but the Iranian premier said the appeal was a "little late."

Iranian Calls Truman Bid 'Little Late'

TEHRAN, Iran, July 9.—(AP)—President Truman again appealed to Premier Mohammed Mossadegh today for a settlement of the oil crisis, fast approaching a calamitous shutdown of British operations, but the Iranian premier said the appeal was a "little late."

Iranian Calls Truman Bid 'Little Late'

TEHRAN, Iran, July 9.—(AP)—President Truman again appealed to Premier Mohammed Mossadegh today for a settlement of the oil crisis, fast approaching a calamitous shutdown of British operations, but the Iranian premier said the appeal was a "little late."

Iranian Calls Truman Bid 'Little Late'

TEHRAN, Iran, July 9.—(AP)—President Truman again appealed to Premier Mohammed Mossadegh today for a settlement of the oil crisis, fast approaching a calamitous shutdown of British operations, but the Iranian premier said the appeal was a "little late."

Iranian Calls Truman Bid 'Little Late'

TEHRAN, Iran, July 9.—(AP)—President Truman again appealed to Premier Mohammed Mossadegh today for a settlement of the oil crisis, fast approaching a calamitous shutdown of British operations, but the Iranian premier said the appeal was a "little late."

Iranian Calls Truman Bid 'Little Late'

TEHRAN, Iran, July 9.—(AP)—President Truman again appealed to Premier Mohammed Mossadegh today for a settlement of the oil crisis, fast approaching a calamitous shutdown of British operations, but the Iranian premier said the appeal was a "little late."

STOKES COUNTY PLANT DYNAMITED